

Declaration of Decontamination - Rinsing Declaration for Heat Exchanger

Works Standard

Company:
Contact:
Address
Phone:		E-Mail:
Model / Type:
Serial number:		Year of construction

Defect (if known): _____

Description of medium with which the heat exchanger came into contact

Process side: _____

Service side: _____

- | | | | | | |
|--------------------------|---|--|--------------------------|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS01
(„Explosive“) | <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS06
(„Toxic“) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS02
(„Spontaneously combustible“) | <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS07
(„Dangerous“) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS03
(„Oxidising agent“) | <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS08
(„Harmful to health“) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS05
(„Corrosive substances (solid and liquid)“) | <input type="checkbox"/> |  | GHS09
(„Hazardous to the environment“) |

The heat exchanger has been cleaned and rinsed and can be repaired without further protective arrangements ☐ Yes ☐ No

Heating the heat exchanger up to 120°C is not dangerous ☐ Yes ☐ No

Process residue that may adhere to the equipment is not harmful ☐ Yes ☐ No

Rinsing water can be let out into the local sewer ☐ Yes ☐ No

Note: The heat exchanger (goods) can be shipped only provided that all of the aforementioned questions have been answered „yes“. If you need further assistance please contact us. +49 (7622) 6751 0

Date, rubber stamp und sign